

TEEN DATING VIOLENCE AWARENESS

TEEN DATING VIOLENCE IS HURTFUL, HARMFUL, & HIDDEN

This is Johanna

Johanna Orozco knew Juan since second grade. In the tenth grade they became sweethearts . In the eleventh grade they became inseparable.

During Johanna's senior year, Juan shot her in the face with a sawed-off shotgun. Teen dating violence is Hurtful, Harmful, and Hidden.

Johanna after many reconstructive surgeries.

WHO: Featured Speaker — Timothy Boehnlein, Domestic Violence & Child Advocacy Center, Cleveland, OH

WHEN: September 26, 2011 6:30pm — 7:30pm
Q & A to follow with Community Professionals

WHERE: Zanesville High School Cafetorium

WHAT: 1.) Johanna's Story 2.) Teen Dating Violence Facts
3.) How to Recognize if Your Child is a Victim
4.) Signs if YOU are in an Abusive Relationship 5.) New Laws

WHO SHOULD ATTEND: Young Adults, Educators, and Parents
Students in Junior High, High School, and College

Sponsored By:
Soroptimist International of Zanesville
In partnership with
Daybreak Rotary &
Zanesville High School

